UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

IN RE OWENS CORNING, et al., Chapter 11 Case Nos. 00-3837 to 3854 (JKF) (Jointly Administered) Debtors. : Related to D.I. No. 14180 Hearing Held February 28, 2005 Agenda Item No. 4

CERTIFICATION OF COUNSEL FOR CREDIT SUISSE FIRST BOSTON ("CSFB"), AS AGENT, REGARDING A PROPOSED ORDER DENYING CSFB'S MOTION FOR AN ORDER AUTHORIZING IT TO COMMENCE AN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING ON BEHALF OF THE DEBTORS' ESTATES AGAINST CERTAIN PHYSICIANS WHO FALSELY REPORTED X-RAY READINGS AS POSITIVE FOR ASBESTOS-RELATED IMPAIRMENT

The undersigned, counsel to Credit Suisse First Boston ("CSFB"), as Agent for the pre-petition bank lenders to Owens Corning and certain of its subsidiaries (the "Bank Lenders"), hereby certifies that:

- 1. On January 12, 2005, CSFB filed a Motion for an Order Authorizing it to Commence an Adversary Proceeding on Behalf of the Debtors' Estates Against Certain Physicians Who Falsely Reported X-Ray Readings as Positive for Asbestos-Related Impairment (Docket No. 14180) (the "Motion").
- 2. On February 10, 2005, Owens Corning timely filed a response and conditional objection to the Motion (Docket Nos. 14466 and 14467) ("Conditional Opposition"). The Conditional Opposition requested that the Court condition any permission to proceed derivatively on CSFB's agreement to provide an indemnity against potential counterclaims against the Debtors.

- 3. On February 18, 2005, CSFB requested leave to file a reply memorandum in further support of the Motion (Docket No. 14515), which the Court granted by order dated March 8, 2005. CSFB filed the Reply ("Reply") on March 10, 2005 (Docket No. 14649).
- 4. A hearing on the Motion was held before the Court on February 28, 2005. During the hearing, the Court indicated that it would deny the Motion unless CSFB, as Agent, agreed to indemnify Owens Corning, or provide equivalent security, against counterclaims asserted against the estate (Hearing Tr. 20).
- 5. Counsel for CSFB stated that CSFB would provide an indemnity, given the Court's stated intent to deny the Motion and given the statute of limitations concerns about any further delay in prosecuting the Adversary Proceeding contemplated by the Motion (Hearing Tr. 22).
- 6. Counsel for Owens Corning responded that with an appropriate indemnity, Owens Corning was prepared to drop its objection to the Motion (Hearing Tr. 22-23). The Court reserved ruling on the Motion subject to the parties reaching agreement on an indemnity acceptable to both sides after the hearing (Hearing Tr. 25).
- 7. Following the February 28, 2005 hearing, CSFB and other members of the bank lending syndicate's Steering Committee conferred internally about the indemnity condition required by the Court and concluded that it was not an arrangement to which they could agree with Owens Corning. Members of the Steering Committee contacted Owens Corning directly and asked whether Owens Corning would agree to forego the indemnity requirement or, if not, then agree to abandon the proposed B-reader claims to CSFB subject to an appropriate sharing arrangement of any recoveries in order to ameliorate Owens Corning's concerns about counterclaims. Owens Corning has not agreed to drop the indemnity condition or to abandon the claims to CSFB.

- 8. On March 11, 2005, Owens Corning filed a Certification of Counsel and Proposed Order containing the following language:
 - 3. CSFB shall indemnify and hold harmless Owens Corning, its directors, officers, agents, professionals and employees against any and all judgments, settlements, fines, penalties, sanctions, costs and expenses, including but not limited to legal fees, incurred in connection with any claims or counterclaims brought by the defendants in, or arising out of, the Adversary Proceeding.

FURTHER ORDERED, that CSFB shall have the right to seek to discontinue or settle the Adversary Proceeding upon reasonable notice to Owens Corning, the official committees and the Futures Representative, and an opportunity to be heard thereon. This right shall not extinguish CSFB's obligation to indemnify and hold harmless Owens Corning, its directors, officers, agents, professionals and employees, as described in paragraph 3 above.

(Docket No. 14656).

- 9. CSFB does not consent to Owens Corning's Proposed Order. CSFB and Owens Corning have not agreed on an indemnity and CSFB maintains its position (as set out in the Reply) that an indemnity may not be required in this circumstance. Accordingly, attached hereto as Exhibit A is a proposed order denying the Motion because CSFB has not satisfied the Court's condition on granting the Motion (the "Proposed Order").
- 10. CSFB respectfully requests that the Court enter the Proposed Order at the earliest convenience of the Court.
